

Gary Ford

Co-founder, Men for Inclusion

Author | DEI Trainer | Industry Commentator

Gary Ford worked as a technologist within Financial Services for over 35 years. He was a Managing Director at JPMorgan where he co-founded their male allies programme for Women in Technology. The programme was rolled out to thousands of men globally and was ultimately launched across the whole firm.

For the last 10 years Gary has actively promoted gender equality. He's been the male ally advisor to Women On The Wharf, and was a winner of the WeAreTheCity Rising Star award in the Men for Gender Balance category.

In 2020, he co-authored his first book, 'The Accidental Sexist: A Handbook for Men on Workplace Diversity and Inclusion' (Rethink Press), showcasing his commitment to fostering inclusivity in workplaces.

Gary's not just a co-founder; he's a driving force behind Men for Inclusion, bringing a wealth of experience and a passion for creating transformational culture change.

A compelling and knowledgeable industry commentator, Gary provides insights and data that will interest those fostering inclusive workplaces through DEI employee engagement and inclusive leadership.

Speaking experience

- UN Women Seoul Gender Equality Dialogue panel in South Korea
- BBC Radio 4 - 'Woman's Hour' guest appearance
- Sky Sports corporate event - Accidental Sexism keynote

 Contact Gary: gary.ford@menforinclusion.com

Expertise

Male allyship | Transformational change
Inclusive leadership | Accidental sexism

Gary can provide data and stats around: Lived Experiences, Male Allies and motivation, measuring DEI success and diversity in technology.

Publications, reports

The Accidental Sexist: A handbook for men on workplace diversity and inclusion (Rethink Press)

Lived Experiences, research

Male Allies: Inclusion Champions, research (contact for an advance copy)

Awards

- Winner - WeAreTheCity- Men for Gender Balance
- Finalist - FDM everywomen in tech - Male Agent of Change